ENTERPRISE RISK MANAGEMENT

Traditional risk assessments quantify probabilities and quantities of risk for a specific business asset or process at a point in time. Increased regulations, tighter operating margins and rapid changes to business plans require advancing the assessment process to continuous integrated risk models including multiple business processes or variables. Review traditional risk factors and risk assessments and how they can apply to an integrated, forward looking view of risk.

GREGORY MACMILLIN

Vice President of Risk Management, Security Service Federal Credit Union

Mr. Mac Millin has strategic and tactical responsibility for the credit union’s risk related programs including Loan Review, Compliance, Fraud Strategy and Operations, Bank Secrecy Act/ Anti-Money Laundering, Information Security Authentication, and Third Party Vendor Reviews.

Mr. Mac Millin has 30 years experience in the financial services industry and holds the Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA) and Certified Data Processor (CDP) designations.

Security Service Federal Credit Union is a $7 billion in assets credit union with its corporate headquarters located in San Antonio, Texas.

Facts about Security Service:

Security Service FCU is among the top 10 largest credit unions in the nation
Security Service is the largest credit union in Texas, Colorado and Utah
$6.6 billion in total loans; $6.1 billion in deposits
37 Texas locations, 19 Colorado locations and 14 Utah locations